Actors & Goals:

 - Human Players: Chooses the settings to play the game on,
                  particiapte in the game,
                  and trying to win against all other players.

 - Computer Players: Plays the game alongside human players,
                     trys to win against all other players.

 - Data Recorder: Records the data of a game being played so it can be paused and resumed at any time.